

Launch your career! Gain the skills sought by employers through hands-on, paid work-integrated learning opportunities in tourism and hospitality.

The Propel Student Work Placement Program creates a direct link between students looking to enhance their workplace skills and employers who can provide valuable firsthand experience.

Further your education in real-world settings. Put your knowledge into practice, develop key employability skills, network with those working in your field of study, and explore the multitude of career pathways available in tourism and hospitality.

For more on the Propel program and a link to the application portal, visit PropelCareers.ca or email Propel@TourismHR.ca.

EXPERIENCES

Placements are available in diverse work environments, from customer-facing to head office, multinational to independent, hotels and restaurants to travel agencies, destination marketing firms, convention centres, ski resorts, cultural sites, concert venues, airlines, tour companies, and more.

ELIGIBILITY

Students must be registered at a recognized Canadian post-secondary institution in a program that includes a work-integrated learning placement; a Canadian citizen, permanent resident, or person to whom refugee protection has been conferred under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act; and legally entitled to work in Canada.