

DESTINATION EMPLOYMENT

HOTEL JOBS & CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

A PART OF CANADA'S VISION FOR TOURISM

HOTELS OFFER A SUITE OF VALUABLE CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

HOSTS

- |   |  |
|---|--|
|  Front desk |  Event management     |
|  Bellman    |  Retail and gift shop |
|  Concierge  |  Valet                |

LEADERSHIP

- |   |   |
|---|---|
|  General Manager      |  Restaurant manager  |
|  Director of banquets |  Director of finance |
|  Operations manager   |  Sales and marketing |

QUALITY SERVICES

- |   |   |
|---|---|
|  Housekeeping               |  Guest services operations |
|  Human resources            |  Administrative            |
|  Engineering and facilities |  Security                  |

SPECIALTY SERVICES

- |  |  |
|--|--|
|  Food and Beverage               |  Spa and recreation |
|  Culinary                        |  Landscaping        |
|  Golf, fitness and entertainment |  |

3 / 4 of newcomers believe working in tourism provides valuable work experience.

Nearly 2 / 3 of newcomers believe tourism is an attractive career.

ADVENTURE AWAITS

Hotel jobs can help new Canadians launch a rewarding career.

VISUALIZING A CAREER IN HOTELS

- > 1/2 of new Canadians working as an accommodation service manager at a hotel are in a career position
- > More than 1/3 of new Canadians see a position as an accommodation service manager as a stepping stone to other career opportunities
- > Nearly 2/3 of new Canadians see a position as a light-duty manager in a hotel as a stepping stone to other career opportunities
- > More than 1/4 of new Canadians see a position as a hotel front desk clerk as a stepping stone to other career opportunities

BUILDING LIFELONG SKILLS

Hotel employment builds transferable skills, which can provide a solid springboard to other opportunities:

- ✓ Customer service
- ✓ Communications
- ✓ People skills
- ✓ Ability to deal with difficult people
- ✓ Multitasking
- ✓ Efficiency
- ✓ Problem solving
- ✓ Planning & organizing
- ✓ Leadership & management

3/4

3/4 of newcomers believe working in tourism is interesting and exciting.